SUNDAY 2ND DECEMBER 2007

VINEYARDS, OLIVE GROVES AND THE SEA

A full day tour

Perhaps one of South Australia's brilliant blends is the picturesque McLaren Vale where vineyards, armed orchards and olive groves all grow within sight of the sea. The region is known for its wonderful Shiraz and Grenache which are grown in many family owned boutique wineries where you can visit and taste their wines. As well as the wine this wonderful Mediterranean climate has encouraged the development of almond orchards and olive groves.

Your tour could include:

- A tasting at a number of the outstanding family owned boutique wineries, such as Wirra Wirra, d'Arenbergs, Woodstock or Hugh Hamiltons.
- A private tasting at Coriole Winery 'where grapes have been grown since 1920 and the first bottled Coriole wine was the 1970 Shiraz. Coriole has earned its reputation of producing premium full bodied red wines focusing on Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon'. Enjoy their excellent wines in a most beautiful setting looking down to the sea.
- A visit to the famous McLaren Vale Olive Grove to sample Olive Oil products.
- Fine local almonds at the Almond Train and a visit to the Gallery of David Dridan well known Australian landscape artist.
- A lunch, which showcases the skills of innovative chefs using the superb fresh regional produce.
- A specialist wine guide.

Time: 10.00 am – 4.00 pm

Cost: $130.00 per person

Inclusions Coach, specialist wine guide, morning tea, lunch and tastings

THURSDAY 6TH DECEMBER, 2007

WINE TOUR OF THE BAROSSA VALLEY

A personalized exclusive tour with a specialist wine guide

Barossa Valley – Australia's biggest quality-wine district – is known as the power house of wine in Australia, where the traditional methods of the old are so well combined with new technology.

Names such as Penfolds, Orlando, Seppelt, Wolf Blass, Yalumba, and Peter Lehmann all have their headquarters here in the Barossa. The rich European heritage with the wonderful buildings and vineyards wait to greet you.

Highlights can include:

- An informative private tasting at Peter Lehmanns Wines to taste the wines that made them International Winemaker of the Year and Australian Wine Producer of the Year at the 2003 International Wine and Spirit Competition, London. Sample their premium wines with the opportunity to discuss your tastings with qualified, knowledgeable winery staff.
- Maggie Beers Farmshop to taste the range of seasonal treats of the region in a beautiful setting, perched on the side of a huge dam surrounded by vines and olives founded by Maggie Beer, cook, writer and owner of Maggie Beer products.
- Lunch in a winery setting where you can savour the region's distinctive cuisine.
- A visit to Yalumba to see the awe inspiring heritage buildings and sample the wines of this "big" name in the wine industry

Time: 9.00am – 4.00pm

Inclusions: Coach, specialist guide, lunch, tastings, and morning tea

Cost: $130.00 p.p.
